WHAT WAS MY CRIME?

Today the Nigerian police are shooting unarmed protesters & journalists on the streets of Abuja. Reports suggest 22 have been killed in the last 2 days including a journalist. To hide their crimes, the police raided Abuja University hospital and snatched about 15 corpses from the mortuary, and 15 seriously injured people, who are now caged at the Abbatoir detention Centre. Among them are five women needing urgent medical attention and a ten year old boy with a bullet in his leg. They are denied medical care, two of the injured died in custody yesterday (22/7/19).

The protesters only demand is that the Nigerian government respect the law, by abiding by the ruling of Nigeria's highest court, that Sheikh Zakzaky's detention for nearly 4 years is unconstitutional and illegal, and he be immediately released and compensation paid. The Buhari regime is refusing to obey the law.
